

Candise Branum

---

5836 North Missouri Avenue
Portland, Oregon 97217
503.740.2880

email: cbranum@ocom.edu
web: candisebranum.wordpress.com

EDUCATION

---

Masters of Library and Information Science

Emporia State University – Class of 2009

Bachelor of Science – Sociology

Portland State University, Portland, Oregon – Class of 2005

LIBRARY EXPERIENCE

---

College Librarian

Oregon College of Oriental Medicine
August 2010 – present

- directing the library and making decisions regarding library functions, including creating and managing the library budget;
- as a faculty member, teaching information literacy courses to first and third-year graduate students and doctoral students;
- managing a $58,362 LSTA grant and co-investigating an NIH AREA-15 grant to create an AOM-specific database;
- providing reference services, including one-on-one reference consultations;
- subscription management, acquisitions and cataloging of new material;
- hiring and management of all library staff;
- collaborating on the creation of course packets and working as a liaison between instructors and copyright holders;
- organizing library promotions, such as National Library Week.

Reference Librarian

Mt. Hood Community College
September 2009 – August 2010

- providing library reference and research assistance to students with diverse educational needs;
- conducting virtual reference services, including email and instant messaging;
- conducting literature reviews and collection development projects, as assigned by library faculty.

Lead Library Assistant

Oregon College of Oriental Medicine
September 2007 – August 2010

- assisting students with reference questions and database searches, including one-on-one research consultations;
- design, creation and management of library web site using CMS, including the digital repository of graduate and doctoral student papers;
- creation of online tutorials using HTML, PHP and CSS;
- teaching information literacy classes to first and third-year graduate students and giving lectures, as assigned by the college librarian;
- creation and maintenance of library forms and emerging technologies;
- collaboration with the librarian on special projects, such as indexing doctoral capstones and securing copyright permissions

- for course packets;
- processing of materials, basic book repair, and general maintenance of the collection

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

---

OCOM Professional Committees, 2010 – present

Academic Steering Committee, Academic Strategic Planning Committee, Faculty Senate, Operational Steering Committee

PNC/MLA, 2010 – present

Annual Conference Treasurer

Q Center Library, 2010 – present

Advisory Board Member

L-Net Text Messaging Team, 2010

Committee to discuss options for bringing SMS reference services to the L-net community.

Portland Radical Reference, 2009 – present

Collective member / organizer

CopyNight Portland, 2008 – 2010

Student Chapter of the American Library Association-Oregon Chapter, 2008 – 2009

Social activities coordinator

American Library Association, 2007 – present

Member: ACRL, LGBTQ-R, LIRT, SRRT.

Acupuncture Practitioner Research Education Enhancement (APREE) Committee Member, 2007 – 2008

Member of OCOM committee to evaluate outcomes related to an educational research grant.

Student Chapter of the American Library Association-Oregon Chapter, 2007 – 2008

Secretary

TEACHING, PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT & AWARDS

---

Online NW Conference – February 5, 2010

Presentation: Host videos on Vimeo and create custom widgets for your web site.

OCOM Classroom Instruction, Fall 2009 – present

Teaching the first-year graduate student class, Oriental Medicine Research I, and the Information Literacy Session for doctoral students and third year Practicum students.

Anarchist Book Fair – June 6, 2009

Leading a Radical Reference workshop on copyright for activists and artists.

OLA Conference – April 2, 2009

Poster presentation, Down with DRM! Library responsibilities in the age of digital materials.

Sofia 2008 Conference – August 2008

Presentation on digital rights management systems in public libraries. Furbur scholarship recipient.

OLA/WLA Joint Conference - April 16 – 18, 2008

Showcase coordinator, "Innovative outreach programs."

ACRL Oregon & Washington Fall Conference - October 23 – 24, 2008

Oregon scholarship recipient.

TECH SKILLS

---

- web design using content management systems such as JOOMLA and languages such as XHTML, PHP and CSS;
- creation of online bibliographic instruction tools, such as subject guides and video tutorials;
- creation and management of an online digital repository of student papers;
- integration of Web2.0 and social software into library setting;
- experience aiding in the transition to a new ILS; knowledge of all back-end modules of Innovative Millenium ILS.

PUBLICATIONS

---

- Branum, C. (2009). Sofia 2008: Reflections from a student. IFLA set bulletin, 10(1), 29-30.